WHO: Harvest Hall & Dallas 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb

WHAT: To honor the victims of 9/11, Harvest Hall, the European-style food hall connected to Hotel Vin in Grapevine and operated by Coury Hospitality, has partnered with the Dallas 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb to display a 21' x 21' quilt, that will be suspended from the 40-foot-high trusses of Harvest Hall beginning September 3rd. The quilt, which from a distance appears to be an American Flag, features the faces of nearly 2,700 victims of the September 11th attacks stitched together to create the image.

On loan from Dallas 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb, the flag was created by Hearts & Hands of America and is part of a 3-piece collection. One of the three quilts previously hung in the entrance of the Pentagon and the other is displayed at Fountain Place in downtown Dallas during the organization's 110 story climb each year.

The quilt will be on display at Harvest Hall through September 30th where it can be viewed from the ground level of the hall or from the second-floor balcony of Hotel Vin.

The City of Grapevine will also host its annual 9/11 Memorial Ceremony on September 11th to honor those that we lost 20 years ago. The ceremony will be held at the 9/11 Memorial in Grapevine. More information can be found HERE.

ABOUT HARVEST HALL

Connected directly to Hotel Vin, Harvest Hall is a European-inspired food hall unlike anything in the DFW area. Each of the hall's six chef-driven kitchens boasts its own unique cuisine including Arepa TX, Chick & Biscuit, East Slider Texas, Monkey King Noodle Co., Sputino by Loveria, and Zatar, along with the Main Line Coffee Bar, making it the easiest way to eat the best of DFW. In addition to its six kitchens and coffee bar, Harvest Hall also hosts a freestanding bar and is home to the Third Rail entertainment venue. A premier spot to gather for a drink with friends in DFW, Third Rail hosts musicians, comedians, and more each week for live entertainment.

ABOUT DALLAS 9/11 MEMORIAL STAIR CLIMB

On March 25, 2011, Plano (TX) Firefighter John Barrett participated in the first 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb hosted by the NFFF at the Fire Departments Instructor Conference held in Indianapolis, IN. The following Monday, the first planning meeting was held for the inaugural Dallas 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb. More than 360 firefighters from four states and eighty-nine fire departments participated in the inaugural event, raising almost $160,000 to support the families of fallen firefighters. In its 10th year, the event has hosted hundreds of climbers and still seeks to find additional ways to remember fallen public safety officers and their families by stepping up to honor the fallen.

ABOUT COURY HOSPITALITY

Paul Coury, our Founder and Chief Executive Officer, launched Coury Properties in Tulsa, Oklahoma more than 30 years ago. Led with a combination of vision, design and creativity, it quickly became one of the state's leading property management companies capable of converting unsuccessful properties into prosperous investments. Paul worked with investors and developers on land deals and asset management for over 15 years before opening his first hotel, the Ambassador Tulsa, in 1999. The progression of Coury Properties into Coury Hospitality became the future as a hotel management company, which has grown to include 25+hotels and restaurants with more in the works all the time.
